God's Word Brings Life to Our Hearts and to Our Homes

Beloved brothers and sisters in Christ,

Grace and peace be upon you in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who is Himself the Living Word and the Light of the world.

As we observe National Bible Month 2026, we turn our hearts to the theme: “God’s Word brings LIFE to our Hearts and our Homes.” The Word of God has always been a source of strength and renewal for God’s people, and this year’s theme reminds us of its power to transform us, our families, and our communities.

We live in a time marked by challenges. Corruption and dishonesty erode trust, divisions weaken our unity, injustice wounds our neighbors, and natural calamities remind us of how fragile life can be. Yet the Bible assures us that God’s Word is not an empty tradition but a life-giving force. As Moses declared, “These teachings are not empty words; they are your very life” (Deuteronomy 32:47a, GNT).

The Scriptures breathe life into us by leading us first into the way of love. Jesus commanded, “Love one another as I have loved you” (John 13:34). True love, shaped by God’s Word, goes beyond sentiment—it becomes compassion for the needy, forgiveness for the offender, and reconciliation where there is conflict. When our homes and churches are filled with such love, healing and peace flow outward into society.

God’s Word also calls us to live with integrity. In a world often marked by compromise, Scripture reminds us that our words and deeds must be consistent with the truth we confess. Integrity does not mean perfection, but it does mean faithfulness. It is a daily decision to walk in honesty, to act justly, and to live in a way that honors God. When integrity flourishes, trust is restored, and justice takes root.

Through the Bible we are also strengthened in faith. Life’s storms—illness, loss, poverty, disaster—test our endurance, yet the Word of God keeps us anchored. As Paul reminds us, “Faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ” (Romans 10:17). When families read and meditate on the Scriptures, they discover hope that endures and courage to face the unknown.

Finally, the Word of God calls us into active engagement with the world around us. The Bible is not meant to remain closed on our shelves or confined within church walls. It is to be lived out in daily life—guiding how we raise our children, how we work, how we serve, and how we contribute to building our nation. When we allow Scripture to shape our values and actions, it becomes a light that transforms culture itself.

Friends, the Bible is not just a companion for a season but for a lifetime. May this year’s celebration inspire us to open our hearts and homes more fully to God’s Word. As we do, may His love, integrity, faith, and engagement flow through us, bringing renewal to our nation and hope to the world.

May the Lord bless you richly, and may His Word always be your lamp and light (Psalm 119:105).

In Christ,
Bishop Justice Raoul V. Victorino (Ret.)

John 13:34 • Deuteronomy 32:47

JOHN 13:34 New American Bible

I give you a new commandment:
love one another.
As I have loved you, so you also should
love one another.

DEUTERONOMY 32:47 Good News Translation

These teachings are not empty words;
they are your very life.
Obey them and you will live long in that land across the Jordan that you are about to occupy.
